

Maja Persson joined SACC-DC in August 2007. Before that, Maja worked with media outreach for the Robert F. Kennedy Center for Human Rights in Washington, DC. Prior to that she spent almost three years in Nicaragua where she worked as a project manager at the European-Latin American Chamber of Commerce Eurocentro. Before her time in Nicaragua Maja worked as an Information Officer at International IDEA (Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance) in Stockholm. Maja has a degree in Business Administration from Stockholm University. She moved to Washington, DC in 2003 and lives here with her husband and two daughters.