

Thomas M. deButts is a Washington, DC international trade lawyer with the firm Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP whose practice is concentrated in assisting domestic and foreign firms negotiate the complex web of U.S. international trade controls. Specific areas of expertise include export controls on products, software and technology, economic sanctions, financial transaction controls, antiboycott controls, Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and notifications to the U.S. Treasury Department's Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) of proposed acquisitions of strategic U.S. entities.

Education

J.D., George Mason University School of Law, 1991

A.B., Duke University, 1981